In response to the recent global financial crisis, capitalism is being reexamined. What should be expected of capitalism and, more generally, economic society in future? Dr. Shozaburo Jimi, former Minister for Postal Privatization and Financial Services and Professor Muhammad Yunus, Nobel Peace Prize laureate and founder of Grameen Bank in Bangladesh, which provides microcredit to the poor, will address these issues at the Symposium. They will deliver keynote speeches, which will be followed by a panel discussion.
